

IRC starts with seven proposals

KUALA LUMPUR: Seven immediate recommendations on the reform of key institutions in the country have been handed in by the Institutional Reform Committee (IRC) to the Council of Eminent Persons (CEP).

IRC committee member Datuk Ambiga Sreenevasan said among the institutions were the Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission (MACC), Royal Malaysia Police and Attorney General's Chambers.

You're one step closer towards activating your full membership.

Start your 1 month FREE trial for unlimited access to articles and features.